

CORPUS JR.

The world's foremost ergonomic seating design is now available for children with the Corpus Jr. The features and accessories of the Corpus Jr. are modular in design to accommodate a variety of seating needs and allow the chair to grow with the child. With the Corpus Jr., a power wheelchair user can maintain continuity of seating from childhood throughout adulthood. This compact pediatric design is currently available on the C300 and C400 models.

CORPUS JR. FEATURES

- Modularity of seating accessories, growth and seat functions
- Accommodates a wide variety of seating needs
- Mix and match seat and backrest sizes to fit individual needs
- Accommodates aftermarket seating through use of optional tubular back and flat seat panel
- Available in fabric or leatherette

AVAILABLE POWER OPTIONS

CORPUS JR. SPECIFICATIONS

- Seat depth: 13"-22"
(13-18 in 1" increments, then 2" increments)
- Shorter/lower leg length
- Smaller flip-up footplates
- Option of Ergonomic or Rectangular backrest
- Back widths starting at 14"
- Optional notched back to allow narrower lateral positioning
- Half-size laterals
- Optional pediatric or adult headrest
- Ergonomic cushion selection from 12x12 to 21x22
- Available with all optional seat functions
- Seat to floor height as low as 17.5" with four seat functions

Power adjustable tilt is just one of the many features available on the Corpus Jr.

THE POWER OF MOBILITY